

Life Connections

Peer Recovery Services
Virtual Recovery Center

Life Connections understands that with the increase of Covid-19 that there is a increase of individuals who are needing support, with this we are going to now go remotely by virtual and phone capabilities, want to offer a way for you to stay physically distant but socially engaged, we offer support groups, one on one support and just that socialization that we all need. We look forward to seeing you soon and remember, there is hope, there is possibility, there is support when you need it.
